DIES AFTER FALL

CAPT. I. M. WOOD, 77, LIVES SIX HOUR AFTER ACCIDENT.

CAME TO COUNTY 1870

Was Civil War Veteran of 72 Battles and Uninjured—Funeral at Hopkins Tomorrow.

Isaac M. Wood, 77 years old, No. 722 East Jenkins street, died at 7:30 o'clock last night from the effect of injuries received in a fall of twenty feet from a ladder at his home about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. It is believed by a son, Charles Wood of Hopkins, that his father suddenly became dizzy while on the ladder and fell, as he suffered from a weak heart. His left leg was broken just below the hip and his right arm splintered in the fall. He also probably received internal injuries.

Mr. Wood, or as many came to know him as Captain Wood, was painting the gable of his home when the accident occurred. As the right arm was amputated for cancer about four years ago between the wrist and elbow, it is believed he lost his hold upon the ladder upon becoming dizzy.

He was found lying semi-conscious beneath the ladder at 1 o'clock by Mrs. Wood when he failed to answer her summons to dinner. It is believed he had fallen but a short time before that, as the place where he fell is in direct view from the street. E. O. Bone, a negro instructor at the Douglas school nearby and John Mahoney a near neighbor were called. They aided Mrs. Wood in carrying him into the house, where medical attention was given. He was conscious most of the time until his death about six hours later.

Lived Here Ten Years.

Capt. Wood and family came to Missouri in 1870 from Ohio, where he was born. He settled in Hopkins where he resided about twenty-five years. He then moved to a farm near Buffalo in Dallas county where he continued to live until ten years ago. He had lived in Maryville since that time.

Capt. Wood by occupation was a blacksmith, although he had lived a retired life since moving to Maryville. He was a civil war veteran of seventy-two battles. He first enlisted in Company K, forty-fourth volunteer infantry of Indiana in November 1861 at the first call for volunteers.

He re-enlisted the next year Christmas Day in Company L, fourth United States calvary. He continued with the calvary until the close of the war. He went through the seventy-two battles without an injury despite the fact that he fought through such bloody battles as that at Shiloh, Lookout Mountain, and others entered into by the western and southern divisions of the federal army.

Mr. Wood was born in Ohio, July 1837. He is survived by a wife and two sons, Charles Woods of Hopkins, and Frank Woods of Los Angeles, Cal. Frank Woods will be unable to come here.

The body was taken to Hopkins at noon today over the Burlington, where the funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the Methodist church. The Rev. H. Frank lin will officiate. Burial will be in the Hopkins cemetery.

TO CHARTER SPECIAL.

St. Joseph Woodmen Will Send Large Delegation to Home-Coming Event.

A meeting of the central committee of the Woodmen of the World of St. Joseph, which represents the five camps in that city, met in special session last night to arrange for attendance and initiation work at the W. O. W. log rolling during the first two days of the Maryville home-coming celebration, October 13 and 14. It was decided to ask the Burlington railroad for a special train October 15 from St. Joseph to this city, to accommodate the St. Joseph Woodmen.

It is the intention of the St. Joseph lodges to win as much of the $500 prize money offered by the Commercial club as possible. It is believed between 500 and 600 candidates will be initiated during the log rolling.

The Christian Brotherhood held an informal meeting in the First Christian church last night to discuss general plans for the church work this fall and winter. It was the first meeting to have been held since the first part of August. The Brotherhood has a membership of about thirty members of the church.

It is planned to virtually reorganize and make a strenuous campaign during the ensuing year. It was decided last night to give a Brotherhood supper in the church Friday night, September 25, at which time speeches will be delivered and plans further made for the church work.

BUSINESS COLLEGE OPENS.

Maryville Institution Begins Fall Term—Rains Retard Enrollment.

The fall term of the Maryville Business College began last Monday with a fair enrollment. The stormy weather during the forepart of the week kept some of the students from starting. Several new ones are expected next week.

The following are some of those who began school this week: Raymond Byrens, Philip, S. D.; Roy Pulley, Maryville; Miss Mary Rose Brady, Clyde, and Lee Strickler, Skidmore.

Miss Marie Groves of Skidmore, one of our students of last year, who was compelled to leave school on account of ill health, returned to school last Monday, after spending the summer in Colorado.

Robert McKenzie left school Wednesday for the remainder of the week, on account of the death of his father.

Ernest Yeaman, one of our graduates of two years ago, who is visiting relatives in Maryville, called at the college Thursday afternoon. Mr. Yeaman has made a success in his work in Chicago. He is now assistant office manager of the J. W. Butler Paper company. This company employs about 475 men, and it is part of Mr. Yeaman's work to assist in looking after this force.

Miss Mabel Neal has arranged her work so that she comes to school for a short time in the afternoon and recites her shorthand lesson. She hopes by doing this to finish up her shorthand course without having to give up her position.

A list of some of the students who have secured positions during the summer follow: Miss Nellie Rigney, with Talbor Reel company, Kansas City, Mo.; Lawrence Davidson, with the Kansas City Wholesale Grocery company, Kansas City, Mo.; Lester Thompson, with the C., B. & Q. railroad, Creston, Ia.; Miss Marvel Brown, with Cook, Cummins & Dawson, Maryville; Miss Myrtle Conley, with T. L. Wilderman garage, Maryville, and Miss Mabel Neal, with I. K. Alderman, Maryville.

Returned From M. P. Conference.

Rev. C. R. Green, pastor of the Harmony church, returned Saturday noon from a five week's trip. He attended the M. P. conference, which was held at Princeton, Mo., last week, and was again selected as president of the conference. Rev. Green and family also visited at Kansas City, Springhill, Kan., and Bluffs, Ill., his former home.

Mrs. S. M. Smith and son of St. Joseph returned to their home yesterday after a visit in Maryville with Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Townsend, and her sister, Mrs. E. T. Godsey, and family.

CROY TO FRONT

MARYVILLE PRODUCT DEPICTS TOWN IN LATEST WORK.

MERIT ALONE APPEALS

"When to Lock the Stable" Has Record Sale, Because of Local Interest and Quality.

Snappy of the soil and lingo of old Nodaway, with the unaffected humor which permeates all his writings, "When to Lock the Stable," by Homer Croy is a story that can well be read for its merit alone without the added pleasure it give to Maryville folk because of the true-to-life incidents and the real happenings of some of Maryville's early history woven into the story.

Clem Pointer, the book hero, is said to be an artfully handled good natured ly humorous, but absolutely true reproduction of a Nodaway county personage. Others of the characters and the incidents of the story are genuine of the locality.

Those familiar with the early day stories who have read the book have enjoyed it thoroughly and those not familiar have enjoyed it because the enjoyment is between the covers.

The book was placed on sale last week at H. T. Crane's. Nearly every copy of the first order was sold immediately.

The illustrations are by Monte Crews, of Fayette, Mo., a former classmate of Mr. Croy.

The story centers around Clem Pointer, who makes his home with his sister, Hulda. Tired of humdrum existence, Clem decides to run away and see things. He disappears. Curryville, the scene of the book action, mourns him and offers $500 dead or alive. Clem gets acquainted with a circus grafter and follows the "profesh." There is a medicine man, "Dr. Fordyce," also said to be a once Maryvilleite.

The story is woven around Clem's experiences and is told with a lot of droll philosophy. In the end Clem and his sweetheart, Mary Mendenhall, live happy ever after.

Goes to Columbia.

Miss Helen Dunn of Bolckow left at noon today for Chillicothe to make a short visit, after which she will go to Columbia to attend the state university this winter. Miss Dunn came to Maryville yesterday and was the guest of Miss Ruth Montgomery until her departure.

Purchased Old Spickerman Tract.

Mrs. W. J. C. Smith of Malvern, Ia., has purchased the 10-acre tract in southeast Maryville of Clark A. Smith, formerly known as the O. A. Spickerman place. The deal was made through Holmes & Wolfert, and Mrs. Smith will take immediate possession.

J. L. Griffith, formerly of Maryville, Takes Charge of Shop.

J. L. Griffith, who, until a year ago, was employed for three years by F. W. Crow, photographer, has purchased a studio in Stanberry, which he has this week taken charge of. Frank Weston, who formerly conducted the gallery at Stanberry expects to leave next spring for the west to locate.

Mr. Griffith is making a number of improvements in the Stanberry shop since taking charge. He worked with Mr. Crow until 1913, when he was engaged by the government to teach a school at Pine Ridge agency, in South Dakota. He has been living there until purchasing the Stanberry county studio.

IS NATIONAL HYMN DAY.

Suggest Observance Monday of "Star Spangled Banner's" Birth.

County Superintendent W. M. Oakerson has been requested to induce a general observance in the schools of Nodaway county Monday of the birth of the national hymn, "Star Spangled Banner," by P. P. Claxton, commissioner of education of the department of the interior at Washington. The song was composed September 14, 1814, a century ago, by Francis Scott Key. It was not made the country's chief song until many years later.

It has been suggested that all pupils sing the song in the schools at noon Monday, and otherwise observe the day with a recital of the author's biography and of the adoption as a national hymn of his masterpiece.

LINN OVERMAN HERE.

Theatrical Star and His Bride to Visit Maryville Relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Linn Overman arrived in Maryville this morning from Providence, R. I., and will spend several weeks here visiting Mr. Overman's aunts, Mrs. Will Foster and Mrs. John Bantz, and families.

Mr. Overman has been on the stage for several years and has attained an enviable prominence. He has starred the past two seasons in New York and Boston, and this fall was traveling on the Keith circuit until his health has failed, making a rest imperative. He has recently married and will be accompanied to Maryville by his bride. After a visit here, which was Mr. Overman's boyhood home, they will go to Denver to visit his mother, Mrs. L. P. Merriman.

FRENCH BLOCK A GERMAN ADVANCE

KAISER'S LOSS HEAVY IN EFFORT TO CROSS MARNE—FAILED SIXTEEN TIMES.

AUSTRIA AGGRESSOR AGAINST RUSSIANS

Official Statement Says Dual Monarch on Offensive—Divert Move to Avoid Trap.

(By American Press.)

Paris, Sept. 12.—It now appears that the German diversion from the route to Paris was to avoid a trap set by Joffre, commanding the French forces.

London, Sept. 12.—The following official German statement was received tonight by the Marconi Wireless Telegraph company: "In the eastern theater of war a battle has recommenced with the Austrians assuming the offensive. In the region of Lemberg, during the nine days' fighting it is estimated the Russians have engaged 560,000 infantry, 40,000 cavalry, 1,500 machine guns and 2,000 field guns."

The Anglo-French forces which repulsed the Germans on the banks of the river Marne inflicted enormous losses to men and material. The Germans made incredible efforts to cross the Marne, the French having destroyed all bridges.

The Germans tried to construct three bridges of boats sixteen times. The bridges, when on the point of completion, were reduced each time to matchwood by the French artillery. The battle field was quickly cleared of dead and wounded.

TO OPEN MUSIC SCHOOL.

Conservatory Term Begins Monday with Improved Facilities.

The Maryville Conservatory of Music will open its twelfth consecutive term Monday with Professor P. O. Landon, director again. The conservatory expects to have a larger class and with an improved faculty and with Prof. Landon enabled this season to devote his entire time to the school.

Another marked improvement likewise has been completed whereby advanced students of the conservatory may receive credit for their work in both vocal and instrumental music at the state normal through an affiliation effected by Prof. Landon last June with that institution. This credit will count on regular diploma and elective work.

Prof. H. B. Schuler who formerly was an instructor at the conservatory, has returned for this term, succeeding Mrs. W. M. Westbrook of Maryville. Prof. Schuler since leaving the local school of music, has taught in the Trenton conservatory and most recently has been studying advanced music in New York City.

He will have charge of voice culture and also of classes in sight reading, an innovation of this term. He likewise will direct chorus work in oratorio.

Prof. Landon, unlike previous terms, will be able to devote all his attention to the school, having severed his connection with the normal here relative to instruction work at that institution. He had taught the last three years in the State Normal besides attending to the conservatory work.

The remaining faculty this term will consist of:

Miss Alice Porter, piano.
Miss Wilma Mills, piano.
Miss Eleanor Smith, piano.
Miss Edith Wilson, violin.
Miss Grace Sturm will again be secretary.

All Stars to Barnard.

The Maryville All Stars base ball team will play the Modern Woodmen of America team of Barnard at that place tomorrow afternoon. The Barnard aggregation and the All Stars played fourteen innings to a tie here two weeks ago, after a well played game. Virtually the same line-up will battle for supremacy again tomorrow. Many Maryville fans are expected to witness the game.

Colonel Charles Evans and W. O. P. Keever of Parnell were transacting business in Maryville yesterday.

THE WEATHER

GO TO CHURCH!

Reports from all over the country show that the GO TO CHURCH movement is exceeding all expectations. Pittsburgh was one of the cities that made a record. Religious fervor there attained a high pitch when thousands of people who had been remiss in their spiritual duties for years responded to the invitation to make GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY a success. Practically every church benefited by the innovation and some to such an extent that they were at a loss to care for the large crowds assembled.

WHILE NO ATTEMPT WAS MADE TO TABULATE THE PERCENTAGE OF INCREASED ATTENDANCE ON THE PART OF THE EVANGELISTIC COMMITTEE WHICH ORIGINATED THE MOVEMENT, SUFFICIENT IS KNOWN TO SAY THAT IT EXCEEDED ALL EXPECTATIONS BY MANY FOLD AND GIVES WARRANT FOR THE BELIEF THAT AT LAST THE TIDE HAS TURNED IN THE CHURCHES' FAVOR. TAKEN ALL IN ALL, IT WAS THE OCCASION FOR THE RECEPTION OF HUNDREDS WHO WERE LIFELONG STRANGERS TO CHURCH AND THE WELCOMING BACK INTO THE FOLD OF MANY WHO HAD STRAYED INTO OTHER PATHS.

Featured by a special MESSAGE OF APPROVAL FROM PRESIDENT WOODROW WILSON to churches in the Allegheny valley, Pennsylvania, GO TO CHURCH day was observed there. Advertising in newspapers, by posters, ards and personal calls was largely responsible for an unusually large turnout. The observance was under the auspices of the Allegheny Valley Ministerial association. Each church member endeavored to take with him five friends, who were urged to invite five more. The services were made attractive by special sermons and music.

Now that the GO TO CHURCH movement has been fairly launched throughout the country, don't let it lag. KEEP PLUGGING. Those who have returned to the church should not be spasmodic in their attendance. BE CONSISTENT. BE STEADY.

GO TO CHURCH every Sunday!

COMPELS ATTENDANCE.

Truancy Law Affects All Between 8 and 16 Years Old.

For the benefit of parents and pupils the provisions of the state compulsory attendance law is herewith published. Coming as it does at near the opening of school when her near-grown boy has an awful hankering to play hooky, there is no doubt but what it will be read with interest, even though with disgust by the would-be-truant. It particularly applies to all boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 16.

The full text as enacted in the 1909 and 1911 sessions of the Missouri legislature follows:

1. Every child between 8 and 14 years old must attend some day school at least three-fourths of the term each year.

2. Every child between 14 and 16 years old, when not regularly employed, must attend some day school at least three-fourths of the term each year.

3. No child can be excused on promise to attend; he must attend the first three-fourths of the term before being excused under this law.

4. Courts having jurisdiction (justice of the peace in rural districts and in cities having less than 50,000 population) may excuse children from attending school for the following reasons: (1) Parents cannot supply proper clothing; (2) child is mentally or physically unable to attend; (3) no public school in two and a half miles of the home; (4) child has completed the common school course.

5. No child under 14 years can be employed except at agricultural pursuits and in domestic service unless excused for one of the four reasons, or has statement from teacher that he has already attended three-fourths of the term for that school year; no child between 14 and 16 can be legally employed without an employment certificate issued by the school authorities.

6. It is the duty of attendance officers and district clerks to notify parents and guardians when children fail to comply with the provisions of the law.

7. The secretary or clerk of the board must furnish principal or teacher at beginning of term with copy of enumeration. The principal or teacher must compare the list with enrollment and report at the end of each week during the first month, and as often as necessary after that, the names of non-attendants.

8. The clerk or secretary of board must report to the county superintendent on or before the end of each of the first three-quarters of the school term the names of parents or guardians of non-attendants.

9. The penalty for non-attendance falls on parents or guardian, and is a fine of not more than $25 or imprisonment for ten days, or both.

10. For illegal employment of a child, the employer is subject to a fine of one hundred dollars and costs and imprisonment for one year.

11. Every school board shall publish this synopsis in newspapers of the district or post it in at least five public places ten days before school opens each year.

Done by order of Board of Directors this September 12, 1914.

The Building of a Business
(A Tip to Bigger Sales)

"HOW CONSISTENT ADVERTISING KEEPS THE PUBLIC EYE ON YOUR CONCERN."

You advertise at first to inform the public what you have, and the quality of your products.

For the same reason you must advertise consistently least the present public should forget and tomorrow's public should never know.

Just because the buyer doesn't come into your store today, or tomorrow or the next day is not a sign that he isn't coming later on. The buyer makes a purchase when in need of an article and not much sooner. In between these times the buyer has his eyes on you. You can look for him later. His need for that article will come.

But underneath this good and necessary reason for consistent advertising is the effect the advertising has on yourself and your employes. They are proud of their concern because they know its alive.

You can't let up on business problems. You've got to tug away every day. Your advertising shows the public how you are thinking.

This consistent advertising marks your goods. It places an obligation on the public as to where they should buy.

It is the greatest business builder in the world.

DRAINAGE DISTRICT LOSES.

Errors Render Tarkio Assessments Void, Circuit Judge Decides.

Circuit Judge Seehorn of the Kansas City division has held that the assessments of benefits and damages to lands situated in the big Tarkio drainage district are void on account of defects and errors in the proceedings. It was tried recently in the courts at Savannah. Judge Seehorn also ordered the commissioner's report quashed.

This leaves the drainage district just where it was following the decisions rendered by the state supreme court some time ago in the Nabor and Voltmer cases. Counsel for the district have announced that no appeal from the most recent verdict will be taken. Instead they intend to begin new proceedings for the assessment of benefits.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

In housecleaning it does the same thing—saves your time and strength. Cleans woodwork, takes stains out of carpets, freshens up mattings, polishes brass. It brightens silverware and makes china and glass shine. Dissolves the grease on pots and pans. Does all this in cool or lukewarm water.

Anty Drudge's Advice About Saving Money

Mrs. Extravagant—"I wish I could save some money, but it's all I can do to make John's salary keep us, let alone put any away. I don't spend much on myself, either."

Anty Drudge—"Well, you can save the price of the washwoman every week, and the woman who comes in for a week or two twice a year to help you houseclean. If you'd use Fels-Naptha Soap you could do that work yourself and not be tired out, either."

Better buy Fels-Naptha by the carton or box.

AUSTRIANS ARE FLEEING IN DISORDER

Czar's Forces Capture Tomaszow.

Apole and Tourbine Ard Taken by Russiane.

PINDERBURG WINS VICTORY.

Defeats Left Flank of Invading Army, It Is Reported.

The German right wing and its army in the center are still retreating before the allies in France, according to a French official report. Guns, men and stores are said to have been captured by the allies.

Semlin, in Austria, across the river from Belgrade, has been taken by the Servians.

The Russians claim to have taken Tomaszow, Russian Poland, and report that they have repulsed the Germans near Chorzele and Myszinec.

Reports from east Prussia say that the Russian Twenty-second army corps has been defeated by the Germans at Lyck.

Petrograd says the Russians have succeeded in separating the Austrian left wing from its main body near Tomaszow and Rawa, in Russian Poland.

Renewed activity by the German navy in the Baltic is indicated in reports from Berlin and elsewhere.

Eight French physicians arriving in Rotterdam after attending both French and German wounded declare they found no evidence of the use of dumdum bullets by either side.

Petrograd, Sept. 12.—Tomaszow has been taken after a desperate fight.

The German troops near Myszinec and Chorzele, Russian Poland, have been repulsed with heavy losses.

The Russian troops have taken by assault the fortified positions of Opole and Tourbine, Russian Poland, and pursued the enemy a distance of twenty-five miles. Russian cavalry is still driving the rear guard of the enemy.

It is announced that the Russian troops have succeeded in separating the left wing of the Austrian army from the troops which were operating around Tomaszow and Rawa, in Russian Poland.

The Austrian retirement on the Vistula is being conducted with a semblance of order, but the case is very different with the right wing operating near Tomaszow. The Austrians here are routed and fleeing in the utmost disorder. Driving in between the two wings the Russians have cut off this Austro-German army and completely surrounded it on the front and the flank. The Russians have summoned this right wing to surrender.

The Russian cavalry has got behind the retreating army with guns and the situation of the Austro-Germans is now desperate. To cross marshes and rivers with cavalry and artillery and ammunition in the rear is more than any beaten army ever accomplished since Napoleon's time. Moreover, the Austro-Germans have lost the bulk of their supply trains and the men must be starving.

Pindenburg Wins Big Victory.

Washington, Sept. 12.—The German embassay received the following wireless from Berlin:

"General Pindenburg with the eastern army outflanked and defeated the left wing of the Russian army still in east Prussia. The Russians gave up fighting and are now retreating everywhere. The eastern army is pursuing the Russians in a southeasterly direction toward the river Niemen."

This victory opens the way for an attack on the Russian main army in Russian Poland along the line to Warsaw.

It may also be possible to flank the Russians, whose forces have been reduced to send additional troops to Galicia, where the Austrians are again reported to have assumed the offensive north of Lemberg.

The Russian version is that their forces are falling back, but holding.

Russians Defeated at Lyck.

London, Sept. 12.—A Reuter dispatch from Berlin says:

"The general staff announces that the Twenty-second Russian army corps of Finland has tried to force an entrance into east Prussia by way of Lyck. The Russians were defeated at Lyck."

BATTLE OF MARNE STILL IN PROGRESS

Von Kluck's Dash Forces Fight on Invaders.

London, Sept. 12.—The battle of Marne, as the French have christened the great struggle, which now has been in progress for a week in the territory between Paris and Verdun with the allied armies of France and England on one side and the Germans on the other, has not yet reached a decisive result.

The German right, however, in the face of superior forces and threatened with an outflanking movement, continues to retire to the north along the route over which General von Kluck made his famous dash toward Paris from the Belgian border, after having defeated the allies at Mons and again at Cambrai and St. Quentin.

With General von Kluck, also, according to French official reports, the right wing of General von Buelow's army, which supported his left, is falling back toward the rivers Aisne and Oise. On von Buelow's left the army of the Prince of Wurtemberg, which has been trying for weeks to break through the French line, has also stopped fighting and retired north. The German left wing, however, composed of other sections of the Prince of Wurtemberg's army and the army commanded by the German crown prince, is still fighting with varying success. The armies, however, appear to have passed Verdun, as Berlin reports say they have been bombarding fortified positions south of that fortress.

FUND TO GO FOR WAR

Move on to Induce Red Cross to Give Up Plan For National Home.

Washington, Sept. 12.—A movement is on foot to induce the American National Red Cross to abandon its plans for an $800,000 Washington headquarters and send the fund abroad for the care of soldiers wounded in the war.

Through Miss Mabel T. Boardman the Red Cross recently appealed to the people of the United States to subscribe $1,000,000 to the war relief fund. There has been a ready response to the appeal on the part of hundreds of people whose sympathies have been touched by the suffering entailed by the war, but it is evident that it will be a long time before the contributions total the large amount called for by the organization.

GERMANS RETREAT IN FRANCE

Britons Take Many Guns and Men.

ALLIES DRIVE FOE BACK

German Center and Right Wing Forced to Yield Ground.

MIDDLE IS ALSO RETREATING

Bloody Battle, Already Six Days Old, Still Rages.

London, Sept. 12.—An official report issued at Paris says:

"The Germans continue to retreat. The British have taken eleven cannon and many prisoners. The German center, as well as their right wing, is retreating."

A review of the recent fighting east of Paris from the standpoint of the French war office is made in an official communication issued at Paris. The offensive movements of the allies are described as successful. The statement follows:

"As we already have announced, a battle has been taking place since Sept. 6 over a front extending in a general way from Paris to Verdun.

Obliged to Retire.

"From the very outset of this action the German right wing, the army commanded by General von Kluck, which Sept. 6 had reached the district to the north of Provins, was obliged to fall back because of the danger of being enveloped. By its clever and rapid movements this army was succeeding in escaping from the allies' grip and was throwing itself with the greater part of its force against our enveloping wing to the north of the Marne and west of the Ourcq river.

"But the French troops which were operating in this region, powerfully aided by the bravery of our British allies, inflicted considerable losses on the enemy and gained the time necessary to allow our offensive to press forward and at present on that side the enemy is in retreat toward Aisne and the Oise.

Have Not Ceased Pursuit.

"He has thus fallen back more than sixty or seventy-five kilometers (thirty-seven to forty-six miles) in four days. In the meantime the Anglo-French forces which had been operating to the south of the Marne have not ceased to pursue their offensive. Starting some of them from the district south of the forest of Cirey and others from the region north of Provins and south of Esternay they opened out from the Marne on the left, the army of General von Kluck as well as the army of General von Buelow falling back before our troops.

It is in the region included between the plateau north of Sezanne and Vitry-le-Francois that the most desperate fighting occurred. In this region there have been operating, besides the left wing of General von Buelow, the army of Saxony and a part of the army commanded by the Prince of Wurtemburg.

"The Germans have tried to break our center by repeated and violent attacks. Our success on the plateau to the north of Sezanne enabled us in our turn to take the offensive and the enemy stopped fighting on the front between the marsh of St. Gonde and Sommenes district and fell back in the region of west Vitry-le-Francois.

No Great Change.

"On the Ornain river, as between the Argonne forest and the river Meuse, where the armies of the Prince of Wurtemburg and the crown prince of Germany were operating, fighting was still going on with alternate advances and retreats, but without any great change in the situation.

"Thus the first phase of the battle of the Marne is turning out in favor of the allied armies, since the German right wing and center at present are in retreat. On our right, the situation remains without notable changes in the Vosges and around Nancy, which the Germans have tried to bombard with some long range guns.

"The general situation has thus been completely transformed during the last two days, both from strategic and tactical points of view. Not only have our troops stopped the German's march, which they thought was a victorious one, but the enemy has fallen back before us at nearly every point."
